Extension of Time.

It Will Probably Be Asked of President Harrison

ON CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

Not Enough Time to Change the Employees in the Railway Mail Service.

Various Other Dispatches from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—It is probable that the president will be asked to extend the time when the civil service rules will apply to the railway mail service. Under the present order, after May 1, all appointments to the service must be made through the civil service commission and under its regulations. More than three-fourths of the employees were removed during the past administration, and their places supplied by others.

A large proportion of the men removed are valuable employees, and as far as practicable they are being restored to their old places, but all the chances of this character will not be made before the 1st of May for lack of time. After that date a large number of the former employees will be excluded from reinstatement, as they have been more than a year out of the service. For this reason it is desirable to extend the time when the civil service rules will go into effect.

Fund for Shacks.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Information has been received at the state department from the United States consul at Paramaribo that Arthur R. Sawyer, of Charlestown, Mass., second mate of the brig Eugene Hale, of Calais, Me., was drowned on the morning of Feb. 25, last, in the Surinam river, within about twenty feet of the wharf. Every effort was made to save the unfortunate man, but without avail. It is supposed that the remains were devoured by sharks, in which the harbor abounds.

Panhandle Arrives in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the newly appointed British minister, arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by Henry Edwards, of the British legation, and his private secretary. He was driven at once to the British legation when he took up in readiness for his occupancy.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The president has appointed the following named postmasters in Ohio and Indiana:

OHIO.—W. S. G. Oberlin; S. C. Moore, Findlay.
Indiana.—M. C. Gurley, Madison; G. P. Bebout, Rushville; Mr. M. J. Howe, Worthington.

Yellow Fever at Sanford, Florida.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital bureau, has received a telegram from Dr. Daniels, president of the Florida state board of health, stating that a case of yellow fever has broken out in Sanford, Fla., and that he has taken every precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

Placed on the Retired List.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Capt. William L. Roe, of the Seventh Infantry, and First Lieut. Hugh T. Roe, of the First Infantry, were placed on the retired list of the army yesterday on account of disability. Col. David L. Magruder, surgeon, has been placed on the retired list on account of old age.

Washington Notes.

Secretary Tracy and Maj. Gen. Schenck left Washington to-day, in a special car for New York to attend a dinner to be given there this evening by Austin Corbin. They will return Thursday.

Secretary Tracy will make a tour of inspection to the torpedo station at Newport, R. I., and neighboring institutions shortly.

The secretary of war has ordered a salute of thirty-eight guns to be fired on the 30th of April at all the military stations in the United States.

The Adams was put in commission at Mare Island yesterday and the Yorktown at League island.

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY.

The Robber Captured and Locked Up in Jail.

VENTURA, Calif., April 24.—At noon yesterday a bold attempt was made to rob Collins & Sons' bank while Cashier Collins was at lunch. An employe named Morrison was alone in the bank at the time. A man named McCarthy, who was recently discharged from the county hospital, entered the bank and complained that it poverty and desperation had almost driven him to suicide, laid a package, which he claimed contained dynamite, on the counter and drawing a revolver, demanded $3,000. Morrison ran out of the bank and gave the alarm.

The thief meanwhile had secured $1,900, and was making for his horse, when he had turned near the bank. A crowd had collected on the street, but none was armed. The sheriff stepped into a hardware store, secured a shotgun and was about to fire at the robber, when he said "Wait." The money was all received, 1 cent $20, which was probably lost on the street.

Seizing of Knights of Labor.

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—The National convention of machinery constructors, Knights of Labor, has been adjourned for several days. T. V. F. Gray was also in town, and it is reported that it is the work of this convention which brought him to Detroit. This combination of us employees, the most influential in numbers in the United States, has instigated an endeavor to take steps to secede from the Knights of Labor. The machinery men desire to resolve themselves into trade unions, as they believe their own interests would thus be better subserved.

A Case of Leprosy.

GALENA, Ill., April 24.—A case of leprosy has been discovered at Spring Lake, Wis. The victim is a woman. The contractor of the disease is well marked.

END OF HIS EXPLORATIONS.

Lord Lansdale Arrives in San Francisco and is Interviewed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Lord Lansdale arrived here yesterday on the steamer Bertha, from Kodiak, Alaska. He states that after leaving Winnipeg he traveled on sleds drawn by dogs, his only white companion being William McLean, a cook in the employ of the Hudson Bay company. In Aug., 1888, he reached Metville island. This was his farthest point north. Thence he started across Alaska to the nearest point on the Yukon river, after reaching which he followed the river nearly all the way. He had with him sixty-nine dogs and eighteen Indians, but during the journey all but twenty-eight of the dogs died, and several Indians were nearly frozen to death.

Lansdale was obliged to walk over 1,500 miles of the journey across Alaska owing to the depth of the snow, which made it impossible for the dogs to draw anything more than the sleds with the provisions on them and some rich specimens. On Nov. 10, 1888, he reached the Russian mission on the Yukon river. From there he went across to Neskaguk river, thence to Bristol bay, arriving at Katmai on January 12, 1889. Owing to the thickness of the ice, the boat did not arrive from Kodiak until March 17. He left Kodiak for this port about a month ago. Lord Lansdale says his object was not to find the north pole, as had been stated, but to explore the islands in the Arctic ocean and study the birds and animals found there. He will stay a few weeks in this city and then go to New York by way of Wm. C. Gause.

KANSAS CITY, April 24.—A special from Guthrie via Arkansas City, says: The first homestead entry filed at Guthrie was that of Mark S. Cohn, of Fort Smith, Ark. The first soldier to file a declaratory statement was Euston Turner, who was a private in Company I, Sixth Illinois cavalry. Yesterday three town site entries, those of Guthrie, Oklahoma City and Edmunds, and twenty-one soldiers' declaratory statements were filed.

At 12:15 o'clock William Johnson, heading the little procession at the land office, laid down a rough chart of Guthrie and filed it as a town site. This was the first paper presented. Four land office clerks from Washington have arrived, two to be stationed at Kingfisher and two here. Land Registrar Dilley stated that the Kingfisher land office would not be open until Thursday.

The First Murder Over a Claim.
About 5 o'clock, Monday afternoon S. T. Compus was shot and mortally wounded by an unknown man, who claimed prior right to his claim. Compus lived half an hour and his story of the murder is about as follows: He and his partner had entered Guthrie on ponies. All the lots were gone and they had swam the Cimarron and had staked a claim. As they were driving the fast stock in a fellow was discovered in the bushes on the bank of the creek. This man said that he had already staked the claim. Compus and his partner offered to divide. To this the fellow objected and warned them that he would shoot if they did not leave. Compus paid no attention to this threat and decided he should sleep on that claim.

Half an hour afterward Compus was shot by the first claimant. The murderer could realize what had been done. Compus' partner and sympathizing boomers gave the dying man all the attention possible, and buried his remains in the bushes. Owing to the peculiar situation it is not likely the murderer will be apprehended. A reporter claims to have heard the shot, and a moment later to have seen a man on horseback ride west over the hill at a breakneck speed. Further than this evidence is wanting.

The dead man was about 30 years old and had black hair and eyes. He wore a gray flannel shirt, boots and pants, and had his belt strapped to his pony. Compus' companion took possession of the murdered man's outfit, consisting of a wagon and two horses. This was the only murder near Guthrie reported up to midnight.

Other Murders.
Mr. J. G. Varman, deputy marshal, who has just arrived here, says that Martin Colbert, a wealthy citizen of the Chickasaw nation, was killed in a quarrel over a claim by a man named Noland.

About fourteen miles west of Oklahoma City a man was found dead on a claim. Near the body was a man by the name of Martin, who coolly informed the deputy that he had killed the man in self-defense.

About three miles west of Guthrie an invader shot a settler in a dispute over a claim and seriously wounded him.

The First City Organized.
On locating the new town of Noble, Mr. Varman says the scenes were the most exciting he ever witnessed. Texas cowboys and Chickasaw half-breeds, mounted on fleet horses, started on a dead run with Winchester in their hands. These men were employed by a Texas colony, and within a few hours after noon they had their town government organized. L. L. Stone was elected mayor. The town has a population of 1,500 people. Some of the overflow from Guthrie have gone over on to sections in Range 2, and organized a town to be called West Guthrie. It is a question whether this can legally be done without satisfying the squatters. There are already four or five contestants for this claim, and several boomers had already staked on different portions of it.

Suffering for Water.
There is much suffering on account of the scarcity of water. The water in the Cottonwood is red with mud and a famine seems imminent. Hawkers went about the depot last night with buckets of water, charging five cents a glass. The stuff was poor, but found a ready sale. The engineers were besieged by thirsty people for drinks from the engine tanks and many were necessitated to drink.

Disputes Received at Washington.
WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary Nohl has received several disputes from special agents of the interior department now in Oklahoma. The disputes are dated yesterday. A dispatch from Arkansas City, Kan., near the Oklahoma line, states that the entry into the territory was "orderly and quiet; have heard of no quarrels or altercations." The agent further states that he understands that the land offices at Kingfisher will not be open for business until Thursday next.

A dispatch from Guthrie, I. T., of April 24 says: Everything quiet here. A good class of people in charge of affairs. A public meeting here to-night as orderly and conservative in character as it would be in New York. The agent at this office says telegraph people pay no attention to government messages; they get more money from commercial and press business. The people, he says, will settle the town site question and await legislation to perfect titles.

Star Mail Routes in the Territory.
WASHINGTON, April 24.—Second Assistant Postmaster General Whitfield stated to-day that during the coming week he would establish in Oklahoma territory several star mail routes, from the railroads into the interior. Everything is quiet and cars running on all the lines, though the guard of one or two policemen to each car is still maintained.

No Indications of a Strike.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 24.—Allen Leitzel, a druggist, and Sam O., committed suicide by taking morphine at the American house, in this city, last night. No cause for the deed has yet been learned, but a mystery in which a woman is connected is hinted at. Leitzel was quite wealthy and popular in his native town.

ANOTHER BRIDGE JUMPER.

A Desperate Attempt at Suicide Made From the Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, April 24.—At 6:30 yesterday evening Patrick Carroll, a shoemaker, aged 20 years, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river. He was picked up by a tug and on being brought ashore was arrested. He was taken to a hospital.

The hospital physicians say that Carroll's condition is critical. No bones are broken, but the man is prostrated from shock and may be injured internally. Carroll was intoxicated when he jumped, and intended to commit suicide. He refused to grasp ropes which were thrown from him from the tug, and had to be hauled aboard with a boat hook. He is as yet unable to talk coherently, but declares that he was tired of life and wanted to kill himself.

Serious Riot in Vienna

A Mob Attacks and Stones the Cavalry.

LARGE NUMBERS INJURED.

One Woman Is Trampled to Death by the Excited Strikers—Wholesale Arrests Made—Other Callings from the Atlantic Cable—Foreign Notes.

VIENNA, April 24.—The strikes of the tram car men are nearly over, but the rioting for which the strike was made the pretext continues. A formidable mob stood the cavalry yesterday and held them at bay until they were reinforced by a large detachment of infantry. A change was then made upon the crowd and many of them were wounded. A large number of arrests were made and the mob dispersed. The workmen have steadily refused to join the mob, which is mainly composed of merely anti-social hooligans and Socialists.

The First Murder Over a Claim.

About 5 o'clock, Monday afternoon S. T. Compus was shot and mortally wounded by an unknown man, who claimed prior right to his claim. Compus lived half an hour and his story of the murder is about as follows: He and his partner had entered Guthrie on ponies. All the lots were gone and they had swam the Cimarron and had staked a claim. As they were driving the fast stock in a fellow was discovered in the bushes on the bank of the creek. This man said that he had already staked the claim. Compus and his partner offered to divide. To this the fellow objected and warned them that he would shoot if they did not leave. Compus paid no attention to this threat and decided he should sleep on that claim.

Another Murder.
London, April 24.—Lord Salisbury, the prime minister, had a violent fit of pain in his head, but recovered quickly. Every arrest made was followed by a vigorous rally of the mob with the object of routing the prisoner. It is estimated that there were 20,000 rioters. One woman had been trampled by the men of Company 12, who were with their machines at a corner on Brownie street. The rioters rushed back to the engine house, and just as they arrived there heard the joker tell the men in the house the signal for the fire.

The favorite Otrakin and Dornbach quarters are being occupied by cavalry. Every arrest made was followed by a vigorous rally of the mob with the object of routing the prisoner. It is estimated that there were 20,000 rioters. One woman had been trampled by the men of Company 12, who were with their machines at a corner on Brownie street. The rioters rushed back to the engine house, and just as they arrived there heard the joker tell the men in the house the signal for the fire.

Irish Independence.

LONDON, April 24.—Lord Salisbury, in a speech at Bristol last night, said that the government had not added to the cost of England's defense without serious reflection. In view of variances with European countries an enemy might come from the coastline anywhere between Schleswig and France. It was a grave thing, he said, for any man to propose to add the coastline of Ireland to England's responsibility of defense by giving Ireland independence.

Military Maneuvers.

LONDON, April 24.—A large number of Belgians, including many members of the Garde Civique in full uniform, have arrived at Dover, England, to witness the maneuvers of the volunteers. Rarely, if ever before, have such military evolutions excited so much interest abroad as attested by the steady influx of foreign visitors, and the occasion, therefore, will be one of unusual brilliancy.

State Luncheons.

LONDON, April 24.—At the state luncheon which took place at the Dublin mansion house Sunday, Archishop Walsh expressed the hope that the causes which had led to the abrogation of the former custom of electing Catholic and Protestant lord mayors—nearly would soon be removed and that the reinstated custom would thereafter be strictly observed.

Another Scrimmage in Africa.

LONDON, April 24.—The North German Gazette publishes a report of an engagement between the crew of the German gunboat Hyena and a party of natives of the Cameroons. The vessel landed a force of seventy-five officers and men and a hot fight ensued, resulting in the retreat of the Germans. One sailor was killed and two officers were wounded.

Foreign Notes.

The emperor and empress of Germany have gone to Dresden to pay a visit to the king of Saxony.

Empress Elizabeth of Austria, is undergoing the massage treatment at Wiesbaden.

The governor of Shauki has gone at the head of a force under the protection of two gun boats to recapture Port Halilah, which was taken a few days ago by the Somalis. King Christian has intimated his intention to bestow a decoration upon Capt. Hamilton Murrell, of the steamer Missouri in recognition of his action in rescuing the passengers and crew of the Denmark.

Queen Victoria has arrived at Sandringham, and was received by the elite of Norfolk.

Death from Hydrocephalus.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 24.—Soldier Shoaf, a young farmer, aged 31 years, was bitten by a dog in February, and has died from hydrocephalus. It was not known at the time that the dog was mad. Last Thursday Shoaf took sick while plowing. He had been kept handcuffed and tied up to the time of his death. When in spasms he would try to bite everything near him, and bark like a dog. The bite was in the left wrist. His arm turned black and he died in awful agony.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26,

Now that Ex-Governor Foster has been made one of the three ministers plenipotentiary and envoys extraordinary to the Sioux Indians, the Ohio end of the political log may be regarded as raised to a level again.

PREPARATIONS are now in order for Decoration Day, and the local orators who desire to show off on all possible occasions will now waltz to the front. We will publish complimentary notices of a select few at one dollar per line.

There is a remarkable lack of faith among many citizens on the subject of waterworks. The rush will have to begin soon or the average Marion citizen won't believe we have waterworks until the nozzles are playing on fire and industriously earning their rents.

SKUNKS are said to be numerous in Oklahoma, but they will soon be thinned out when schools are established. The average country school boy is death on skunks—or the Mephitis Americana as Bro. Crawford would say in the calotype. He hasn't succeeded as a skunk-killer himself, however.

The Cleveland Press remarks that since it has been settled that the governors of North Carolina and South Carolina will room together at the same hotel while attending the centennial circus, the time between drinks should only be a question of the number and agility of the bell boys.

FOR a number of weeks the tide of immigration has flowed at the average rate of 20,000 per week. This is no tailing off in the number, but it is not (and it is a hopeful sign) that a much better class of people are coming in on the Atlantic steamers. They are, we are told, mostly young people of some means, and all able to care for them selves.

NEAR Tuesday will be the actual Centennial Anniversary of our present form of government and the event should be duly celebrated, right here in Marion. The Americans are a great people to celebrate anniversaries, and this is a notable one. The day has been proclaimed a holiday by National and State authorities and it should be observed. Let the business places close and the day be given to celebration, though without demonstration.

Piping Gas Across State Lines. CONIVON, Ind., April 24.—The Kentucky Gas company has contracted with an Indianapolis firm to lay an eight-inch main across the Ohio river, the purpose of piping the gas from the wells in the southern part of this county to Louisville. Thus the constitutionality of the act passed by the last legislature of this state, prohibiting the piping of natural gas out of the state, will be tested.

OBITUARY

ANDREWS.—Near Garfield, O., April 7, 1889, James Wilbur Andrews, aged 26 years, 2 months and 10 days. For several years he had been a constant sufferer from pulmonary consumption. He was ever industrious, economical and frugal and a worthy member of the First Baptist church. His funeral service was held in his late residence, April 10th, and was largely attended. Rev. Sutton delivered the sermon, assisted by Rev. Watts, after which the remains were buried in the Cyrus cemetery.

THOMAS.—Near Owens, Ohio, April 16th, 1889, Mr. Frank Thomas, aged 42 years, 10 months and 1 day.

For several years he was a victim of cancer in the throat, and suffered indescribable pain and flesh torture. He was a member of the Green Camp G. A. R. Post and also a member in good standing in the F. B. church. His funeral was held at the First M. E. church, and was very largely attended. Rev. J. A. Sutton officiated at the services and was assisted by Revs. O. Rutter and E. Farham.

The sincere thanks of the widow and children are extended to everyone who visited and assisted them during these long months of affliction, and since the death and burial of their loved one, May God's blessings abide upon them all.

BOYS ON A DRUNK.

A disgusting sight, noticed on north East street on Tuesday afternoon, was that of three young lads, aged from 10 to 12 years, rushing the "grogger" and thoroughly drunk. All were very poorly clad, showing plainly the signs of poverty and desperation, and their boisterous actions and loud curses attracted many within sight to the scene of their carousal. They, in some manner, had secured a large amount of beer, and continued their spree during the afternoon and a part of the evening, when the supply was exhausted, and, after lighting awhile—making the night hideous with their loud yell of blasphemy, they fell to the ground, where they lay in a drunken stupor until sufficiently sober to walk home.

Such lads as these would do well to fall into the hands of authorities who would see that they were properly cared for by having them placed in a home of correction, and the subocean who sells his liquor to such youthful apathetics should suffer a lengthy term of imprisonment on general principles.

GREEN CAMP LOCALS.

H. M. Doss, State plasterer, of Columbus, visited his family and friends in Green Camp, over last Sabbath.

Frank Petty, telegraph operator on some western line, is now visiting home and friends in town.

Miss Victoria objects to the general use of electric lights at Wind-sor castle because it is too strong for her eyes, and it is therefore to a few localities.

The collection of postage stamps made by the late Duchess of Galliera is said to be valued at $20,000. It is contained in 3,000 albums and is the finest collection in the world.

Miss Sally Sprague, of Latine, is visiting Nelson Walker and family in Green Camp. The P. O. S. of A. of Green Camp, propose presenting each of the public schools here with a large U. S. flag.

Green Camp is patriotic. The flags of the town will fly high at 9 o'clock, a.m., April 30th, in honor of the Washington centennial. In the evening Rev. Scott will deliver an appropriate address, and other exercises will take place.

COTTON WITH A TERM.

Karl Remondt, the agent for Schaefer Bros., beer, met with what might have proven a fatal accident Tuesday afternoon, at the N. Y. P. and O. crossing opposite the depot. While going onto his wagon at George Field's saloon, his horse suddenly began to back, driving him into a truck engine farther up the alley, and before he could be stopped the rear end of the wagon was backed into frame 25 which was passing at the time. One of the wheels struck the moving cars, and so jarred the first and wagon around as to almost throw the house under the train. As it was the wagon was badly wrecked although the horse escaped without serious injury. Beyond losing out of his wits and causing 3 in to stop for three hours, "B. Smith" was unharmed. Luckily the train had ten moving cars to the one which was 25 feet apart, so that he was not injured at all.

LONG LIFE

There is not a man in the world more generally desired than I am, yet the majority of people I could care less for their location, not because they are really careless, but because we are so used to give such a place a name, and to give the subject the title of "the world," we receive a nameless place, the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are all very well informed by the various societies, medical and the physicians who are in them, and the physicians who are not in them, and often bound in the office of a doctor.

People only know what they best health-people of every kind disease preventer that has been invented is smitten with a desire to get out and very particular in the shape of New Style. Please, if you are not fit to enter, they would not let you in the room to try it.

But they do not know, they know, when so many not only healthy, but positively injurious things are constantly flooding the market, that some names give us, that they are "Soul's Vinegar Butters," said as a cause of them.

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It strengthens not a failing system in a very short while, unless they buy it once but it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a restorer of course, and exactly as represented. It costs only one dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be sick of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it is New Style. Please Tastes on earth and taste better you take it. Try it and you will feel happier than if you had had a gold mine, for it really cures you as a child.
